柯俊明(2016.04.03-2016.04.10)

Unfortunately, I will leave the VAG lab in June: (. But, departure, perhaps in order to better meet again the intersection it! ~ ~

My mainly planned work:

- Finish the project — crime forecast, if I won't, I will transmit this project to the person who will be selected by teacher Wei Chen.
- Finish my final dissertation associated with the project — crime forecast.
- Learn the back-end development.

The planned time line:

2016.04.10-2016.04.30

Finish my final dissertation in April and I will follow the project — crime forecast if I have to ... and I will back to my home in late April.

2016.05.01-2016.05.31

Develop the visual analytic interface for my final dissertation, and I will learn the back-end development with PHP or other languages. I will follow the project — crime forecast.

2016.06.01-2016.06.10

Transmit the project — crime forecast to the person who will be selected by teacher Wei Chen.

2016.06.10-...

Bye-bye
